Taking Care Training

If you work with any of our ministries involving children or young people, you are required by PCI to attend one of their Taking Care training events at the start of your work and then every three years. There are several events in congregations throughout the country and full details are found on the PCI website.

www.presbyterianireland.org/takingcare/Taking-Care-Training

If you need further information please ask. Everyone who attends should sign the attendance sheet on the night AND inform me where and when they went to training. Margaret Wilkins
